1. The [REDACTED] reported they are completing their advance work in Pascagoula, Mississippi, in anticipation of the Director of Central Intelligence trip there on 9 and 10 March 1979. Special attention is being given to the possible presence of Ronald Murphy in Pascagoula during the DCI's stay. Murphy is considered by the Office of Security to be a threat to the DCI. It has been determined that Murphy was arrested in Pascagoula in 1975 for stabbing his wife and in 1974 for carrying a concealed weapon, a .38 caliber revolver. He has several arrests for drunk related charges and passing bad checks. Two armed DCI agents will be with the DCI during this trip and local authorities and the FBI have been alerted. (C)

2. Chief of Security/Office of SIGINT Operations requested support to meet and assist 12 staff employees arriving 2 March 1979 from Frankfurt via TWA flight #803, arriving New York City 1355 hours. The group was met at New York City by [REDACTED] agents who arranged for them to clear Customs and Immigration on board the airplane and then to be moved to the Braniff airline without going into the TWA terminal. Similar arrangements were made at Dulles Airport for arrival of the Braniff plane. As a result there was no newspaper or TV coverage. (C)
